Sponsor Today!

Downtown Tampa, FL | November 16-19, 2015

Take advantage of this occasion to generate valuable visibility for your organization before 200+ stakeholders from governmental, private, non-profit, and contracting organizations. Working waterfronts include waterfront lands, waterfront infrastructure, and waterways that are used for water-dependent activities, such as ports, marinas, small recreational boat harbors, fishing docks and hundreds of other places across the country where people use and access the water. www.conference.ifas.ufl.edu/NWWWS

Sponsorship Benefits

Sponsorship recognition starts immediately! Several sponsorship opportunities with various levels of recognition are available. Sponsors are recognized online, in print, and in many different ways throughout the Symposium. Maximize your benefits by sponsoring early! Aligning your organization with NWWWS 2015 provides you with the opportunity to:

- Cultivate and strengthen industry relationships
- Interact with key decision makers and stakeholders
- Reinforce your continued commitment to working waterfronts and waterways
- Showcase your organization to governmental, private, non-profit and contracting organizations
- Increase brand awareness within this niche community
- Enhance your prominence as a community leader

Symposium Stakeholders

NWWWS will bring together planners, managers, attorneys, policy makers, elected/appointed officials, waterway and waterfront advocates, users and developers, property and business owners, researchers and students, and others from the following entities:

- Federal, tribal, state, county & municipal governments
- Navigation districts & port authorities
- Citizen marine advisory committees and harbor boards
- Local, regional, state, tribal & federal government organizations
- Environmental & maritime consultancies
- Marine, boating, fishing, aquaculture and tourism industries
- Coastal & marine oriented non-profit organizations
- Educational organizations

Purpose of the Symposium

NWWWS will connect and unite stakeholders from across the U.S., and to showcase (and initiate) innovative, successful, and timely solutions to waterfront and waterway issues. It will also provide attendees an opportunity to network with others who are involved in the same types of professional issues and, together, develop strategies, timelines, funding sources, and regional alliances to address them.

The NWWWS program will feature several presentation formats and engagement opportunities to create an educational and interactive forum where emerging ideas, best practices, and information may be shared:

- Networking opportunities with 200+ stakeholders
- Plenary Sessions
- Concurrent Sessions
- Technical Posters
- Industry & NGO Displays
- Strategic Planning Meeting
- Field Trips
