

JOEL M. CURZON

author / photographer of

LIGHT FADING

Reflections on the Imperiled Everglades will be attending and signing books at the GEER 2010 Conference

"This is a powerful book, a powerful evocation of the startling majesty of the Everglades."

—Ken Burns, award-winning documentary filmmaker

"A deeply personal and passionate plea to preserve the natural areas of southern Florida . . . Joel Curzon's marvelous photographs are sure to inspire readers to reflect on how the wonders of southern Florida are in danger of vanishing unless restoration plans are enacted immediately."

—William F. Loftus, Ph.D., retired Research Ecologist, U.S. Geological Survey's Everglades National Park Field Station. President of Aquatic Research & Communication, LLC.
